REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE TO THE NINETY - THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE, 1936 AT KNOXVILLE, TENN.

It is with deep humility and with a desire to recognize our Heavenly Father's matchless love that we undertake to make this annual report. For the opportunities that have been ours to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to be co-laborers with Him in trying to build a better world, we give hearty thanks, and call upon all of our Brethren to reverently pay tribute to all the pioneer souls, who have made such wonderful contributions that we are so likely to lose sight of in these days when the easy and popular thing is to criticize and minimize the place and power of those who have preceded us.

We greet our beloved leaders, Bishop and Mrs. Wallace E. Brown, and pledge our loyal support to them in striving to make this quadrennium the best in the history of our Conference in Kingdom building.

There has been some illness among our Conference members which has hindered progress; but, by intelligent planning and sacrificial living, our parsonage folk live triumphantly.

Death has visited our ranks during the year and hushed the voice of our dear retired Brothers, C. D. Houchins, J. A. Mitchell, S. G. Ketron, A. M. Rose, and E. O. Woodyard; Mrs. C. F. Lucas passed to her Heavenly reward April 18th after a prolonged illness.

Evangelism

Practically all of our Pastors have held Evangelistic services of some kind during the year. This has been a great year for Revival meetings and personal evangelistic campaigns throughout the Conference. In every district there have been accomplishments worthy of mention; but time and space will not permit us to make special mention of all those who held Revival meetings during the year. In the Bristol District, there were about 400 conversions, over 300 additions to the Church. In the Chattanooga District a great deal of co-operative evangelism has been carried on, many of the pastors assisting one another, with fine results. In the Harriman District, no pastoral charge has gone without a Revival meeting. Some of these have been outstanding, and the District should show quite an increase in membership. In the Johnson City District, there have been over 800 conversions this year; and, the general tone of the Church has been improved. The Knoxville District has been doing a distinctive evangelistic work by having a number of union revival meetings this year. We desire to mention one case where such meetings were most successful; namely, Second Church, Trinity, and First Church in Knoxville. The Pastors did the preaching and conducted the singing. The great hymns of the Church were sung from the new Methodist Hymnal with great spiritual uplift. We desire to further note the efforts of the Second Church for their continuous Sunday Evening Evangelistic Campaign, which has resulted in 175 conversions and 166 additions. This is a good example of what should be done in every local church in the Conference.

Just as we have had a great year in evangelism we have also had a substantial increase in membership. We sincerely recommend that a more definite system of record keeping, both in the Church and Sunday School, be observed. We deplore slight work in making Quarterly Conference reports, and urge that special attention be given to inactive members that may be restored to the roles of active membership in the Church.

Our Sunday Schools are moving upon a much higher plane than in former years. Though in some instances our Sunday School enrollment will remain about the same as last year, some will show a splendid gain; we recommend that all of our Churches use Methodist literature.

Schools and Colleges

The University of Chattanooga reports an increase in enrollment. It has a high rating among the Colleges and Universities in America. We recommend its courses to our young people who are seeking cultural opportunities; and, we recommend wholehearted moral and financial support to the institution. Tennessee Wesleyan, for many years the center of cultural training in our Conference, reports a splendid increase in the number of students registered this year. As a Junior College, Tennessee Wesleyan ranks high in Religious, scholastic, forensic, and athletic endeavors. We recommend all of her cultural qualities to the fine youth of our Conference; and, we sincerely trust that the Conference will uphold the splendid work of the College 100% by their givings.

In accordance with the action of Holston Annual Conference at its last session Murphy Collegiate Institute was closed in January. A committee was appointed by the Conference Board of Education to liquidate. The property is being offered for sale. The general Board of Education, Chicago, have, upon local solicitation, been very gracious in rendering assistance through wise advice and council as well as material support in preserving the property. We wish to express herein our very sincere appreciation for the help rendered. A more detailed report of this institution will be made elsewhere if the Conference permits.

Religious Education

There is a trend upward in the department of Religious Education. With a school of Christian Living in every district, and with many accredited instructors throughout the Conference, we feel that under the splendid leadership of our Conference Director, Rev. H. G. Williamson, great advance has been made. This year many of our charges have conducted special classes in leadership training and daily vacation Church Schools; quite a few of our young people were sent to the Summer School at Athens and to the Epworth League Institute at Gatlinburg.

Young People's Work

The young people's work throughout the Conference is pretty well organized. In each of the Districts, there are Epworth League Unions through which the work of stimulating interest in the Epworth Leagues keep most effectively growing. Many of our fine young people attended the National Conference of Methodist Youth at Berea, Ky., and their recommendations to local Epworth League Chapters will be far reaching. The Institute at Gatlinburg had a very fine attendance this year and reports splendid results. We are looking to the day when our Rural Sections may be more thoroughly organized. We recommend that our young people have their rightful place of leadership in the Church; and, that all detached Leagues become members of some organized League Union, so that more effective Missionary Work may be done. Wonderful as is the work of rescuing the perishing adults, no less wonderful and certainly no less important is the task of training and organizing the young life and the child life—pre-eminently the most valuable asset among our resources.

Women's Work

Throughout the Conference the Ladies Aid Societies have made many worthwhile material and spiritual improvements. We are urging the organization of Women's Work in all of our Churches. Our Women's Missionary Societies are functioning in a very effective way. Their reports will represent much sacrificial living and hard work.

Men's Work

In some of the Districts the Vice-Presidents of the Layman's Association have been effectively engaged in organizing local Laymen's Associations which meet every fifth Sunday and discuss questions of great importance to the growth of the Church. Where these programs have been conducted they have greatly stimulated the local church, and have been especially helpful in the campaign for the Reserve Pension Fund. We feel that some form of Brotherhood needs to be encouraged throughout the Conference, as the men in many of our Churches are not working because they have no organization and hence no program. They give moral and financial support but not commensurate with their ability. The annual meeting at Gatlinburg should have wide publicity and general recognition.

World Service

A renewed interest is being taken by many of our Churches throughout the Conference in World Service. Our people will not give blindly; but, when an intelligent appeal is made which helps them to see the need, they respond. We are coming to feel that we cannot enjoy spiritual growth unless we take a vital interest in the World Program of the Church. We feel that throughout the Conference there must be a vital campaign waged in the interest of the total program of the Church. We enthusiastically recommend the Million Unit Fellowship Movement to this Conference as a means of spiritual growth; and, we trust that it will be received with enthusiasm by the Conference, and by each local Church. We urge all our Pastors to make a thorough study of the Missionary enterprise that they may reach fresh and fruitful convictions as to its rightful place in the total program of the Church. For, the Church that does not practice the Lord's command to "Preach the Gospel in All Nations" surely will come to frustration and failure. Therefore, we must, by the Grace of God, so challenge our people that there will be a greater response and a genuine passion exemplified and experienced which shall become quick and inexorable in the lives of our people.

Social Service

If our Churches are to stand the tests of the times, we shall have to find a satisfactory plan whereby our Social Service Agencies will be in a position to sound many notes in behalf of social justice. To be most effective throughout our rural territory, we suggest that as soon as practicable the Conference be so rearranged as to give a Sociologically sound area to each Pastor which will provide a sufficient income to support the right kind of ministry, equipment, and program. If the Church of today is to cope with the world of tomorrow we shall have to be not only willing, but enthusiastic in our efforts to "Meet Change with Change." If the idea of Unity and the idea of cooperation, in a society which seeks justice, are essentially religious concepts, then this is the time for the Church to speak out in helping to formulate the rules of law as they shall govern human activities. To accomplish a warm, living, world-wide human need, which will give to men and women and their children better living conditions, will require the impetus of the Christian Gospel to give it motivation. The Christian way of life is, "Bear Ye One Another's Burden, and so Fulfill the Law of Christ." Therefore, let us preach the Gospel in these chaotic times with a certainty that comes to men out of a life "Hidden With Christ In God"; for, if man is the center of our interests, then his welfare should be above everything else.

Temperance

Since the day that the Eighteenth Amendment was doomed, we have been overrun by liquor dealers of every sort, and more and more they are a menace to our civilization. We deplore the situation in our supposedly dry state; and, in Virginia, where the A. B. C. Whiskey stores are state controlled, there is a great increase in crime. The devastating movements of the bootlegger, the transporter and the smuggler are appalling; they dispense illegal beer and liquor into our cities and town and country places, until these places are filled with drinkers and their class. Public drunkenness and automobile accidents show a marked increase over last year. With a religion built upon the personality of Jesus, we shall be conquerors at length; but, to cope with this national foe of righteousness we shall have to bridle its galloping pace by educating our children and our children's children in the terrible effects of alcohol, and create once again a consciousness of its horrible results to individuals, homes, and to our civilization. It is a sad day for our nation when "Froth in a beer glass is much more American than tea leaves in a Cup."

Retired Ministers Pension Fund

The severely cold winter and the serious drought which followed during the early summer necessitated the postponment of the retired ministers pension fund campaign throughout the Conference. But, during the remaining months of the Conference year the campaign was launched in dead earnest in each of the districts. Very few were not in the fullest sympathy with this worthy cause. Each of the District Superintendents made this campaign one of his major tasks, and with the fine leadership of Dr. W. M. Dye, who gave most valuable service, the campaign has gone forward, not merely as a campaign of money raising, it resulted in a means of grace to many. Some of our Pastors gave as much as twenty-five and thirty days in the campaign. Rev. Alden Eddy, a Supply Pastor, has gone into most of the Conference Territory and has personally raised over $21,000.00 of the total amount throughout the Conference. The several Districts raised the following amounts: Bristol District $7,000.00 +; Chattanooga District $15,000.00 +; Harriman District $7,000.00 +; Johnson City District $22,000.00 +; and the Knoxville District $3,000.00 +; making a total of $54,000.00 + for which we give hearty thanks to our Heavenly Father and our faithful church membership.

A Trained Ministry

We desire to express our appreciation for the fine work of the Summer School of Ministerial Training, and, because of its great importance, we sincerely pledge our loyal and enthusiastic support to the school that the largest possible emphasis might be laid on the high intellectual and spiritual standards attained in the school. We insist that to become an Accepted Supply Pastor, each local Preacher is required to pursue the prescribed course of study, just as the undergraduates are, and to attend the summer school. We also desire to call to the attention of the entire Conference the extraordinary opportunities offered to the Pastors through the Graduate Courses, and recommend that more of our Pastors attend the summer schools, that a greater impetus may be given to rural religion, and, that our Pastors may be prophetic, courageous and better equipped to go forward with the spirit of Crusaders. It must be remembered that there is a revolution of thought in our rural towns and agricultural centers. We believe that the rural church of today must be made to realize that every problem of rural life is a problem for the Church; and, if the Church is to lead people, we must be able to enrich their lives. The Country Preacher must be a Statesman; and, he must be able to interpret to his people the trends of the times as they relate to the daily life of his people. A better trained ministry will go a long way in preventing an occasional moratorium on preaching.

American Bible Society

Our people do not read their Bibles. The devotional life in the personal life and in the family has well nigh disappeared. Therefore, we earnestly request our Ministers and the laity to faithfully promote the "Upper Room" movement. We have many homes where there is no Bible; and some of our rural Churches have no Bible on the pulpit, therefore we recommend support for the American Bible Society.

Building and Improvements

Bristol District: First Church, Bristol, has paid on debt $800.00. Radford Charge has paid $800.00 on old indebtedness; a new Parsonage has been bought at Roanoke; and great gains have been made on reducing church debt at Villa Heights, Roanoke.

The Bristol District total paid on church improvements this year is approximately $3,000.00; and, has paid on old indebtedness about $4,000.00. While this has not been a great year of church building in the District, it has been a year in which some gains have been made and debts paid.

Chattanooga District: In the Chattanooga District, Rev. R. C. Elzey of the Red Bank Church has reduced the debt on their Church by half, by plan of refinancing. Dr. Frank Hamilton of First Church, Chattanooga, is now in the process of refinancing the big debt on that church. Under the leadership of Rev. D. L. Jones of First Church, Cleveland, the old parsonage has been sold and the church is preparing to build a new and modern dwelling in the residential district of the city. Rev. D. T. Jones of Eastridge, Chattanooga, has a new church almost ready for dedication this fall. The total expenditure of repairs and improvements will doubtless aggregate at least $2,000.00. A number of churches have been restored to life this past year. Rev. John Watkins of the Jasper Parish and Rev. John Babb of the Ironsburg Parish have led in this resurrection proclamation, and, one-half of the Pastoral Charges registered an increase in ministerial support for next year.

Harriman District: Throughout the Norris territory a real transformation has taken place. With the completion of the Norris Dam, and the great reservoir having filled to the 1020 ft. sea level, truly, it has a transforming influence. Nearly all of our churches within the Norris region have been sold; and, unless some unseen power intervenes, some of those churches which are left will have to be sold as abandoned property. Many of the people who live in the hill country near the reservoir, who used to be faithful to the church, now seem to be more interested in boat riding and fishing than anything else. Immediately after the last annual Conference the District Superintendent continued his job of selling abandoned churches, and parsonages which were to be effected by the building of the dam; having sold over $8,000.00 worth of church property this year. Practically all of the funds received from the sale of church property in the Norris Reservoir area have been expended for church building and repairs, and indebtedness. In each case, where building and improvements and church loans were granted, loans were made by the Conference Board of Incorporators on interest bearing notes, with the understanding that all building and repair notes were to be cancelled by this annual Conference. In each case where such loans were made, the local congregation receiving aid was very glad to give sufficiently themselves in order to secure aid thus received. Reports from the Pastors will show that approximately $12,000.00 have been expended this year on building and improvements. The building program at Clinton is nearing completion, under the splendid leadership of the Pastor, Rev. W. L. Pickering; our Harriman building program is nearing completion; and, the Pastor, Rev. H. C. Coleman, has been successful in papering the sanctuary this year and making other necessary repairs. The LaFollette people have finished decorating the interior of their church, and made the Pastor happier by an increase in ministerial support. The Oneida Church and Parsonage have been painted inside and outside. Some very helpful improvements in and around the Kingston Church and Parsonage very greatly enhanced the value of our property. A new electric range in the Parsonage at Kingston, and a new piano in the Bethel Church show signs of interest. A new parsonage at Maynardsville has made things more pleasant for Rev. J. F. Lynch and his family this year. Some parsonage improvements at Lenoir City are worthy of special mention. This was accomplished under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. J. M. Dew, and a fine Ladies Aid Society. Rev. C. H. Taylor and family, at Loudon, are very happy that they don't have to pay house rent any more; a parsonage having been bought and repaired. The church at Rockwood is a credit to the Conference. It is very beautiful since the repair work has been completed under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. W. H. Graves. The church at Jellico is greatly enjoying their new Hammond electric organ; and, the District Parsonage family will enjoy the warmth of a new furnace this winter.

Johnson City District: While this has not been a great year of church building in the District, it has been a year in which certain gains have been made. The beautiful new brick church at Ross' Camp Ground on the Surgoinsville Charge was dedicated this year, free of debt, and we are in the process of building the S. G. Ketron Memorial Church at Lynn Gardens at Kingsport. The Valley Forge Church on the Elizabethton Circuit has been redecorated at a cost of $125.00; First Church, Elizabethton, has made improvements to the extent of $50.00. On the Fall Branch Circuit, Sunday School rooms have been built; at Rock Springs, improvements have been made on the parsonage, etc., aggregating $378.00. The Kingsport Church and Parsonage are being redecorated at the cost of $1,200.00;

Morristown Circuit has redecorated the parsonage and made improvements, aggregating $50.00. The Shiloh Church on the Rutledge Charge has been painted and repairs made at the cost of $225.00. The Limestone Charge has painted one church and placed electric lights in the parsonage; Johnson City First Church has redecorated the parsonage and made certain repairs on the church, aggregating $500.00. The Telford Charge has repaired the parsonage and painted two churches aggregating $405.00. The Mosheim Charge has installed a water system in the parsonage, redecorated a church and bought a piano, at a cost of $290.00; and, the Pitman Center Charge has put a roof on one church and made other repairs, aggregating $75.00.

Knoxville District: Through a general process of refinancing and payment of actual cash, First Church has reduced the debt in the amount of approximately $52,000.00. Second Church has made the regular annual purchase of another house and lot to help house the number of people who insist upon worshipping as near the corner of Western Avenue and Cowan Street as possible. This church has paid on building and old debt $3,200.00 this year. The Burlington Church has paid $1,200.00 on old indebtedness. The congregation at Shady Grove on the Dandridge Charge has succeeded in completing a beautiful stone church which was begun nearly two years ago when a storm tore down the old building. This building will be dedicated by Bishop Brown next Sunday afternoon as a part of this annual Conference Program. There is no debt; the remaining $3,000.00 of the cost of construction was paid this year. During the year $500.00 has been raised and applied to the old indebtedness on Trinity Church. The congregation at Logan's Chapel on the Little River Charge has spent $1,200.00 on their church building, Sunday School rooms and heating plant. The South Knoxville Church has paid $700.00 on their Church and parsonage debt. The Maryville First Church has paid on old debt $1,000.00. The Friendsville Charge has purchased and repaired a parsonage at a cost of approximately $800.00. A number of smaller amounts of $500.00 and less have been expended on repairs and indebtedness.

The Methodist Ritual

We sincerely request our Pastors to acquaint themselves, and our people, with the discipline of our church. How little the Ritual of our Church is used throughout our Conference is well known to the District Superintendents. We seldom, if ever, find the Hymnal in our rural territory. And, in some of our churches, the Holy Communion is seldom administered. Good Music: Good music is a means of grace; time and space will not permit us to discuss the importance of good music; it sounds the keynote of the service. Good music will help to arouse in the minds of the worshipers the thought of the majesty and power of the ever-living God; it will impress upon the people that they are united in the common bonds of experience and understanding; and, it will give impetus to a gospel message. We believe the new Methodist Hymnal to be a superior Hymn Book. We do not appreciate the cheap music used in many of our churches. That our people may be well informed, we urge the reading of our church literature; and, especially do we call attention to the importance and great help of our church papers.

Peace

We feel that one of the greatest tragedies that can come to any Nation is war. We believe war is the greatest social sin of modern times. War makes a lie of the ideals of Christ; debauches human personality; and is a threat to civilization. We abhor the practice and results of War; and, we neither endorse nor support, and we do not purpose to participate in war. We believe that intelligence and good will, in harmony with the mind of Christ, can find ways and means whereby we may deal effectively with evil, whether it be in family relations, relations of nations, or in the relations of economic or racial groups. We need a prophetic ministry today to preach a gospel of condemnation and exposure; so that the aims, methods and practices of munitions makers of the world may be exposed as one of the primary causes of war. We also recommend that our Pastors take advantage of the opportunities offered them for the creation of understanding and good will among our local congregations. As Dorothy Dix stated in a recent article, we believe that if we had a million mothers who would teach their children not to fight in their homes, nor with their neighbors' children, we would be going a long way toward a warless world.

Conclusion

To accomplish the tasks which are to be ours henceforth, we hereby submit to and ask for intelligent planning and hard work, and pray that good health and common sense may accompany our constructive undertakings. We greet all of those who have been co-workers with God in trying to bring about better living conditions for our people; and, we thank God for the staying qualities and religious loyalty of our Methodist people. Though we sometimes feel led to deal with them critically, they are the "Salt of the Earth" and the testimony of the saving grace of a kind, loving, Heavenly Father. We deplore the fact that some of our people have sunk to the present level where they are concerned only with self-preservation which is a barrier to social progress. In some instances, our people are so concerned for the things of the world that they have lost sight of the reason for their existence. All this admitted, and more; notwithstanding, we owe it to ourselves and this Conference to record our tribute of praise and love, and to express our thanks and appreciation for all those blessings which were our rich heritage from the Churches of yesterday, and without which it is doubtful whether we would be here today to give thanks. Sometimes we are prone to look back upon the ideals of our Fathers as traditional, mossback, and sometimes unworthy to be included in religious values; however, we should remember that for their day, our Fathers considered them as the standards and ideals by which life should be measured. They were the best that the church knew and it must be judged by that which constitutes its genius and ability. We verily believe that some of these ideals were good and abiding and must continue, if we are to bring Christ's Kingdom on earth. We must find new ways to inculcate these ideals. Therefore, we conclude with a look at Jesus; He was very human. Whether at a wedding feast, in the homes of His friends, on the streets of the city, or in the country side, he was always exemplifying a heart of compassion. He was always kind and considerate as He gave healing, forgiveness, kindness, peace, and joy. His three great imperatives were: "Come, Tarry, Go." We submit that we want to so live that "The Life of God in the Soul of Man" may be experienced; and, that always being kind, we may be recognized as the family of God, living together in peace and harmony. And, we pray that the spirit of the Almighty may so undergird His Church that the Glorious Gospel of Divine Grace will be experienced around the world, so that the poor may hear its good news, that those in prison may be released, that sinblinded eyes may be opened, that those whom tyranny has crushed may be made free, and, that the Kingdoms of this world shall come to know the acceptable year with the Lord.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Division of Religious Education In the Local Church

If the problems of world brotherhood, race prejudice; peace, war; wealth, poverty; industry, labor; politics and government; are to be solved so that our earth will become the Kingdom of our Lord, we shall have to live in careful application of the teaching of Jesus. This means that we are committed to the task of building a new world and in order to build a new world we must grow new persons. It is the responsibility for the spiritual growth of the individual that concerns the Church today. Its task is more and more being defined in terms of bringing about changes in the lives of persons that will bring them into vital relationship with God and an active application of the teaching of Jesus to the problems of life.

As we face our task as ministers we must increasingly be concerned about what is happening to the Beginner child as he sets out to enroll for day school, to the boy, the girl, in play time, to the youth as he examines the findings of science; yes, to the person of mature years as he meets a world that is hard, indifferent, cold. Somehow we must interpret God to them. We must help each individual to deal practically with the ideals and teaching of Jesus that the Spirit of our Lord be an active principle in his personal life.

This is our task, brethren, the one inclusive task of the Church with which we are grappling. It is for this cause that the program of leadership training has been carried on through the past ten years. Briefly, we bring to attention some evidences of genuine progress during the past year. We mention some of these: The growing strength of the Holston Conference of Methodist Youth, encouragement of young people in places of responsibility on local Church boards, the actual leadership of the camp for intermediates by leaders trained through the years in Holston Conference, young people's institutes that deal constructively with personal religious problems as well as community and world problems, the enlistment and guidance of pastors in taking responsibility for the educational task of the Church as Directors, constantly working at the job, a large number of leadership training classes throughout the conference and workers' conferences with local church groups, a continuance of supervision of a conference-wide program of Daily Vacation Church Schools, and a larger Summer School of Religious Education program through cooperation with the Board of Home Missions.

While there have been these definite gains, many of our local Church leaders even yet do not feel the need of training. The need for a policy and program of leadership training that is constantly going on throughout the year in each local Church is apparent. Two lines of emphasis for the coming year are therefore suggested: First, that a series of seminars be held in leadership training across the conference to which laymen and ministers alike would be invited.

Second, that the work be continued to encourage the individual pastor to undertake more completely the task of director of the total educational program of the local Church, giving his best thought to the selection of teachers, counselling workers, planning for stewardship education and definite periods of evangelism and personal enlistment with each age group, and conducting local classes in Series A and Series B courses, with the Summer School at Athens the objective of his more advanced leaders.

The response of the conference to the call of Rally Day in giving financial support to the conference program is gratifying and the Board of Education wishes to express its appreciation. With the continued backing of every man in every Church to the extent of meeting our Rally Day goals each year, the work will go forward.

The budget for next year is as follows:

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT

"How can the Church help to build a Christ-like world" is a major task confronting us today.

That such a world does not exist is evident from:

An alarming increase in the consumption of alcoholic drinks in our nation. The Repeal of Prohibition is a disgraceful failure and must be doomed from this hour.

Increasing military armaments among nations of the world in preparation for war. War is unnecessary and cannot be reconciled to the teachings of the Prince of Peace.

Racial prejudice and social inequalities.

Precedence of property over personality in our economic order.

In this Christ-like world:

God will be recognized as the universal Father and all men as brothers.

Persons will be valued above things.

The Golden Rule will prevail over the rule of gold.

The service-motive over the profit-motive.

Christ will give the abundant life, which relates to the physical—food, clothing, shelter, as well as mental and spiritual.

There shall be peace and good-will among men.

That such a world is possible of realization is evidenced by the prayer Christ taught us, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven."

How can we achieve it?

There must be a greater emphasis upon the application of the Christian principles to the community. As the Social Creed of our Church affirms: "We believe that it is only as our Churches themselves follow the example and spirit of Jesus in the fullest sense—translating these social ideals into the daily life of the Church and community—that we can ever hope to build the Kingdom of God on earth."

We must remove the causes of wrong. If permitted, the liquor traffic can damn more people than the church can rescue. The world-war gave the world a moral set-back that will require many years to overcome. We must destroy the profit-motive in the liquor traffic and manufacture of war munitions. Capital, industry and labor must recognize social responsibility.

But there must be "first of all the regeneration of individual units." The Gospel of Christ is of individual implication as well as of social application. There must be "a recreation of personality," which Jesus described as the New Birth. The religion of Christ is an inner force enabling us to love God with the whole personality and our neighbor as ourselves. Only Christ can change human hearts. We give ourselves anew to more earnestly preach Christ as the one absolute remedy of the world's needs. Then, and only then, shall the old order based upon greed, selfishness and exploitation be replaced by the Christian social order founded upon love, good-will and brotherhood. "And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying, The former things are passed away. . . Behold, I make all things new."

D. B. COOPER, Secretary.

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL REPORT OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE, 1936

Brand, one of Ibsen's plays, has in it a character who is a Norwegian preacher obsessed with plans for the Kingdom of God. When someone asks him what he is doing, characteristically, he replies: "I am building a church big enough for God." Your World Service Council believes that the Million Unit Fellowship Movement is not only God directed—but is a “big enough” task for God to bless Methodists in our holy sharing.

Methodism will not retreat! Neither will she be content to stand still! But she is ready to write anew that faith of our founder, in this generation, The World is My Parish.

We congratulate the leaders of our church for their vision and courage in launching this Fellowship. We want to share with them in the great task of Evangelizing the world and have accepted as our goal 2,408 units and pledge our earnest support to bring it to pass. This Fellowship of World Service means for the church the identifying of the church with the christianizing of the whole world for Christ; it means for the individual the identifying of the individual with another self so as to bring that other self to the feet of Christ.

We regard the Great Commission as the only acceptable hope for a war-torn, confused, and sinful world and believe it to be our sacred heritage to take Christ into every hamlet as the “Light” which shall bring peace and righteousness to the hearts of mankind; to the rulers in high places; and to the governments of the world.

No passing mood will satisfy our needs; no amount of surface water will quench our thirsts; no mere slogan will stir our hearts; but by much prayer and sacrificial giving, we believe, we will lift the whole moral and spiritual tone of our churches in to the holy of holies. God did not send Christ to save our churches, but to save and redeem a whole world and as Methodists we want to share in his burden of the world. By so doing we shall “outthink, outlive, and outdie” the sinful practices of the world around us.

We feel certain that our people will rally to this challenge. They have never failed us when our call for service was large enough to command their spiritual and material resources.

As pastors we ask that you give special heed to the following dates: November 15—Inauguration Day of the Plan. Tell your congregation, your church school, your organizations and societies of what our church will do in this Fellowship. Avail yourself of the “helps” which the Missionary office at Chicago have for you. Remember your people will not know about the Fellowship unless you ask for it. Remember your people will not know about the Fellowship unless you tell them. Call together your local World Service Council and acquaint them with the plan. They will be eager to follow you.

During the week of December 8, the district superintendents will hold a Fellowship World Service Conference in the afternoon and evening. When the date of your district conference is set plan to take a large number of your people to the Fellowship Conference. It will do them good as they will realize that “together” Methodists around the world are united in a common objective: Praying—Giving—and Leading—in an Evangelism which is Christ-centered and Life-changing.

February 15— This is Victory Night for Methodist Men. Have a dinner of your men either by district groups or the entire district. This will do much to stimulate their interest in the Fellowship. Follow up this dinner with an Every Member Canvas for Units of Fellowship in the local church. Brethren, let us do our utmost to have subscribed among our congregations every unit we are given.

It is not an easy task—but Christ never promised anything easy—He did, however, promise us strength for every task, hope in the face of discouragement, and victory over the world.

Your council feels that the recommendations in this report are practical and unexciting, and that the Million Unit Fellowship can become a means of grace to every charge throughout our Conference. We are grateful to Bishop Keeney for his message to us during the conference session, and also to our own leader, Bishop Brown, who has met with our Council and also will be with us in our district conferences in December.

Let us then, with great hope and noble purpose, go forth from this conference so that during the coming year, when the call from Macedonia comes, we may attain for the crucified, the reward of His suffering.

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will!

Signed for the Council,

W. H. RAGAN, Chairman

RALPH WENDELL KELLY, Secretary.

CONFERENCE PRORATION COMMITTEE

Since a Conference wide campaign has been deemed necessary to provide a comfortable retirement fund; and,

In the interest of equity and justice to every minister in the Conference, including Bishops, District Superintendents, Pastors and Retired Claimants; and,

Since our Discipline emphatically demands ministerial support to be prorated (Discipline, 1932, paragraphs 90 and 328);

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Board of Conference Stewards shall be, and is hereby, constituted a Committee on prorating Ministerial Support, for the purpose of examining the records of the defaulting Pastoral Charges, by failing to prorate in Ministerial Support (see paragraph 340, Sec. 3);

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the default, by whomsoever committed, shall be charged against his annuity claim, and shall be deducted from his annuity upon retirement, or, his widow. Provided, that not less than one year, nor more than five years be deducted, determined by the amount in default; at the average rate of amount paid Claimants in the years in which defaults occurred.

RESOLVED, That this action becomes effective upon the adjournment of this present session of Conference.

Signed, WILLIAM M. DYE.

RESOLUTION:

Future Plans For the Reserve Pension Fund

Because of the many hindrances preventing the completion of the present financial campaign, as intended by last Annual Conference, your Executive Committee, endorsed by the Commission and Cabinet, strongly recommend the following suggestions:

1st—That we make at once the campaign in all charges, where it has not been put on as yet.

2nd—That we complete all charges begun, and not finished, carrying the canvas to the last person so far as practicable, no matter how small the amount may be.

3rd—That we continue the cultivation of all our churches, calling attention to the needs of the funds in whatever ways seem wise, that we may continue to build up the needed amount to cover losses in the collection of amounts now pledged; asking for annuities, estate notes, wills and gifts of real estate.

Call For Assistant

1st—(a) Because of the unfinished campaign which demands immediate vigorous action, to conserve the efforts already put forth the past several years of cultivation, (b) And, the recent incomplete canvas, which if neglected, will cause the loss of many thousands of dollars, we might yet secure; (c) And, because of the immense amount accumulated office work already secured, we kindly and respectfully request the Bishop and Cabinet for an assistant of the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, to work under his directions, and in cooperation with his plans, for the ensuing Conference year. That he be given house rent and modest salary, of say $1,000.00 minimum. And, if the receipts will justify, he may be given $1,200.00, upon the recommendation of the Commission.

2nd—That we recommend that the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, be permitted to select his own assistant.

New Entrants

1st—We recommend that beginning with and including the 1937 session of the Holston Annual Conference, that all new entrants whether admission on Trial, Transfer, or otherwise, shall build up their own fund by contributing 2 per cent of their cash salary, or such a per cent as they themselves shall determine, which shall be credited to each personal contributor's account, which shall be entitled to withdraw same annually, upon his retirement as his Annuity.

2nd—He shall also share in all the Conference funds then available: Namely, The Chartered Fund, Preachers' Aid Society, Board of Pensions and Relief, Book Concern and Conference Claimants collections.

Readjusted Rate of Appropriation to Charges

We recommend that the hitherto flat rate of ten per cent to be collected from the pastoral charges be changed to a graduated scale as follows:

(1) All charges paying $1,000.00 or more, cash salary be required to continue to pay 10% of that amount.

- (2) Charges paying $900-$1,000 pay 9%.
- (3) Charges paying $800-$900 pay 8%.
- (4) Charges paying $700-$800 pay 7%.
- (5) Charges paying $600-$700 pay 6%.
- (6) Charges paying $500-$600 pay 5%.
- (7) Charges paying $400-$500 pay 4%.
- (8) Charges paying $300-$400 pay 3%.
- (9) Charges paying $200-$300 pay 2%.
- (10) Charges paying $100-$200 pay 1%.

Approval

The above plans have been reviewed by the Cabinet and are approved by the Cabinet and the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM M. DYE,
Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

INASMUCH as the Conference Journal of the year 1931 shows that M. L. Sivils received an appointment from the presiding Bishop, while at the same time his name appears in the Supernumerary relation, due to the fact that his appointment was made after the final report of the Conference Relations Committee was made,

THEREFORE, be it resolved: That the Board of Stewards of this Conference be directed to give Brother Sivils credit for Effective Service in the year 1931, and that the Secretary of the Conference be directed to change the record in accordance with this action.

Respectfully submitted,

E. H. OGLE,
G. T. FRANCISCO.

RESOLUTION AFFECTING RECENT ENTRANTS AND TRANSFERS PER CENT

Since all the effective preachers of the Holston Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, at the time of inaugurating the Reserve Pension Fund Campaign, for $335,000.00, voted upon themselves 2% of their cash salary for two years and 1% third year;

And, since, many ministers have entered the Conference, since the cessation of the payment of the above per cent, by Admission on Trial and by Transfer; and,

Since all these will share in the Annuity now being raised, upon retirement, upon the same basis as all other members of the Conference who have paid their per cent;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That all who have entered this Conference, either by Admission on Trial or Transfer, since we ceased paying above per cent, are hereby kindly requested, and are expected to pay as a minimum sum of $30.00 into this Fund, as an equitable share with their brethren, this being only about one-third the average paid by all others;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in case of default in payment of said $30.00, it shall be deducted from their Annuity, as is done with all other Claimants upon retirement, with interest from the date of this action. This applies alike to their widows and dependents.

Signed by WILLIAM M. DYE.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Since our Conference ordered some years ago that our Conference invest our C. C. and Reserve Pension Fund with the Board of Pensions and Relief, I move the draft for disbursements to our C. C. be sent immediately, and all our disbursements be made quarterly by said Board from now on. This action was unanimously approved by the Board of Stewards.

W. M. DYE.

REPORT OF THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE COMMISSION FOR COOPERATION WITH THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

According to the recommendations of The Annual Conference of last year, your Commission has been actively engaged this year, in matters pertaining to the disposal of certain Church property within the Norris Reservoir Area, with matters related to religious programs in new communities and replanned communities, with matters concerning the enlightenment of the people within the area affected by the TVA development.

Through its Chairman, J. M. Hampton, your Commission has kept close contact with the TVA development. The religious work at Norris is more permanently established now than ever; the Rev. Jack Anderson, of the Holston Conference M. E. Church, South, has been called by the local Religious Fellowship Committee as the pastor at Norris. Trends for the future seem to be as follows: • As long as the Government has activities in and around Norris, the Religious Fellowship Organization will continue to hold sway. For nearly two years, the Home Missions Council has been supporting a full-time minister at the Homesteads at Crossville; however, there has developed an element of denominational strife among the people there; one large group having called a Baptist pastor. Our Chairman, as Superintendent of that district, has been instrumental in promoting several property projects which have greatly enhanced property values in this district. Notable projects were: A new parsonage at Loudon and at Maynardville, repairs on Wells Springs and Patten Community Center parsonages; a new furnace in the District Parsonage; further church repairs were made at First Church Harriman and at Rockwood; and a Hammond Electric Organ installed in the Jellico Church; and by order of the last Annual Conference, a loan of a considerable sum ($3,000.00) was made to the Knoxville District Parsonage trustees.

The building of the Chickamauga Dam having been undertaken, and, with the likelihood that some of our church property will be affected by the building of that dam, we recommend the continuation of the Commission.

To be considered as a part of this report is an appended financial statement, showing the receipts and expenditures of the Chairman.

Respectfully submitted by the Commission,

J. M. HAMPTON, Chairman.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE

Re: Books of Dr. W. F. Pitts, Conference Treasurer:

The committee checked the books of Dr. Pitts for the year 1934-1935, comparing the books of records with the actual checks and found them correct in every detail and kept in a very clear and understandable way.

We are again impressed with the large amount of work Dr. Pitts does, and the very great care he takes in the handling of Conference Funds. He does work for which a commercial business would have to pay a considerable sum.

Re: Books of Dr. W. M. Dye, Treasurer of Reserve Pension Fund:

The committee checked the books of Dr. Dye as to method, technique, summary, and balance, and in their judgment his books are correct. We are impressed by the business way in which Dr. Dye carries on the financial work of this fund and the seriousness with which he takes this work. Also, with the large volume of work represented in the large number of separate accounts he keeps. The method he uses gives him a double check on all income and disbursements.

Re: Books of T. V. Peters, Treasurer of Conference Board of Stewards:

The committee has been unable to get sufficient records necessary to make an audit of the books of T. V. Peters. All we were furnished was a statement of receipts and disbursements for the Conference year 1935-1936, but no vouchers were furnished to check against this report. We have not received any records for 1934-1935 Conference year.

Re: Books of G. F. Lockmiller, Treasurer Preachers Aid Society:

In our duty as Auditing committee of the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, we visited the office of G. F. Lockmiller in Athens, Tennessee, on June 15, 1936, for the purpose of checking his records as Treasurer of the Preachers Aid Society.

The Loans and other records were carefully examined and we attach hereto a copy of our findings in connection with each loan as reported in the 1935 Minutes of this Conference which is hereby made a part of our report. We also felt that certain recommendations would be in order in the handling of these various loans and these recommendations were made to Mr. Lockmiller in the form of a letter dated August 6, 1936, and a copy of which is attached as a part of this report.

In view of the changing conditions for the past four or five years in all lines of business and also the changing values and uncertainties of property equities, and also because some of the loans now held by the Preachers Aid Society were made several years ago and have been renewed from time to time and, in some instances, we believe without the title being abstracted up-to-date, we feel that in addition to the recommendations made to Mr. Lockmiller in letter referred to above the following should also be considered by this conference:

(1) That where abstracts are not already made and letters on file bringing title up to date of present loan that such abstract be made at once by an attorney to be employed by this Conference. Most of these loans are recorded in McMinn County and therefore this would not be a very great task. These abstracts when filed with the other mortgage papers would indicate the exact condition of the various titles at the present time.

(2.) We believe also that an appraisal should be made of all properties owned by the Society to determine the value of such assets. This appraisal could be made by a committee appointed by this Conference. Also it may be well to re-appraise some of the property covered by existing loans where the loans have been outstanding for a number of years to determine the present value of such loans.

Your committee found Mr. Lockmiller very much interested in any suggestions for improving the handling of this fund and cooperated fully in securing data for this report.

Respectfully submitted,

MARK M. MOORE,
L. R. HITE,
J. FLOYD GILBERT.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The interests of the Conference in its Schools and Colleges have been given diligent attention by the Conference Board of Education. There have been four meetings of the total Board plus other meetings of special committees during the year. Out of this careful and thorough consideration have come the following recommendations for your approval.

The Board recommends:

(a.) That the goal of the Annual Conference Benevolence remain at $6,000.00.

(b.) That the collections of this Benevolence be distributed, 72% to Tennessee Wesleyan College, 25% to University of Chattanooga, 3% to administrative expense of the Division of Schools and Colleges of the Board of Education.

(c.) That the appropriation to the University of Chattanooga be used by that University for scholarships for Methodist students.

(d.) That Tennessee Wesleyan College, out of its distributed share, shall use for scholarships to Methodist students an amount equal to 25% of the total collections of the Annual Conference Benevolence.

(e.) That a treasurer for the division of Schools and Colleges be elected; whose duties shall be to receive from the Churches, and distribute to the Colleges as designated above, the funds of the Annual Conference Benevolences for Schools and Colleges.

To carry out your action of a year ago concerning Murphy Collegiate Institute, a group representing the Chicago office, the Trustees, the administration of Murphy Collegiate Institute, and the Conference, met last November and organized a committee to be responsible for the closing out of the affairs of Murphy Collegiate Institute. This committee consisted of the following brethren: Bishop Brown, chairman; W. H. Ragan, vice-chairman; J. W. Broyles; W. E. Bishop, secretary; J. S. Fletcher; F. C. Eiselen; Dean Thomas F. Holgate; Clio Buchfield; G. L. Zirkle; W. C. Martin.

This committee has accomplished the following matters:

(a.) The buildings have been reroofed.

(b.) The insurance increased and paid.

(c.) Interest on the mortgage paid to December 4th.

(d.) Some advertising looking to the sale of the property has been done. Several contacts have been made with prospective purchasers, but nothing definite has been accomplished.

The money involved in these activities has come from the Chicago Office, but in the main has been taken from the annual appropriation of the Board of Education to Murphy Collegiate Institute. This committee will continue its work. It is the feeling of this Board, that the necessity for sale is not so immediate that the committee should consider a price less than the amount necessary to pay all the salaries of the teaching and administrative personnel, and all other outstanding obligations. In this matter we must take an attitude which is Christian, not allowing property interests to become predominant over welfare of persons.

A major undertaking of the Board has been carried on by a special committee. It has been realized for a long time that a thorough understanding of Christian Education as it relates to the Holston Conference, and the schools and colleges within the Conference was needed. At the Annual meeting in February a committee was appointed to undertake a study which would be the basis of the understanding.

This committee outlined its work as follows:

- (1.) To re-think and re-state the Purpose of a Christian College.
- (2.) To study the total educational possibilities and needs of the Holston Conference.
- (3.) To study the schools and colleges of the Conference in the light of the needs and possibilities of the Conference.
- (4.) Upon the basis of the above data, what recommendations does this committee make to the Conference Board of Education?

This is a comprehensive study, but one which will give us the necessary factual basis for wise planning and procedure. The committee has worked hard and to date has reported on a part only of its proposed study. Your Board has not had time as yet to consider thoroughly this partial report. The Committee has presented such a wealth of important data, that to obtain full profit from its study, the Board asks the privilege of making its findings the major emphasis of its report to the next Annual Conference. In the meantime the Board recommends that the members of the Conference give much hearty cooperation in attitude and activity to this Special Survey Committee.

Professor Odum in his study, "Southern Regions," emphasizes the contribution through the years of denominational schools and colleges to the culture of the South. Let us carry on in the magnificent spirit of our forbears—through our schools and colleges, interpreting to our youth, the world of the present day in terms of Christianity.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. KILBURN, Chairman of the Division.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

Your Board of Ministerial Training represents a great undertaking of the whole church—the intellectual quickening and refreshing of its local ministry. The courses of study, set up by the Commission on Courses of Study, and so faithfully used under the executive graces of Dr. Allan MacRossie, used to be only a way into the membership of the Conference and the sacred privileges of ordination. Now all classes of the ministry, Supply Pastor, Undergraduate, and Graduate, are expected to keep their intellectual experiences quickened with study.

The Summer School of Ministerial Training—held at Athens in June of each year—carries the major part of the load of Ministerial Training. Holston Conference was represented by seven graduates; twelve undergraduates; three Accepted Supply Pastors, last June.

This number will be greatly increased next year, for all exceptions concerning the Accepted Supply Pastors have been removed by the General Conference. It is also urged that the graduate brethren profit by the five days' curriculum set off especially for them. Three courses will be offered in the graduate section of the Summer School next June.

Required attendance of the Accepted Supply Pastors at Summer School brings a financial problem not heretofore faced. The faculty of the Summer School recommends as follows:

That the Annual Conference ask for a contribution from each pastoral charge of one dollar for each hundred members or fraction thereof, to enable this School to serve every undergraduate and supply pastor. This contribution should be made before June 1 of each year. Your Board approves this recommendation and asks your approval, too.

The attention of the Conference and particularly of those immediately concerned is directed to certain changes in the procedure of Ministerial Training, as ordered by the General Conference.

(1.) No exceptions based on age or length of service are allowed Accepted Supply Pastors—all must take the Traveling Preachers Course of study until they have completed the course.

(2.) This year, two years of college work are required for Reception on Trial. In 1938, four years will be necessary.

(3.) There are certain changes in the subjects in the Course of Study for Accepted Supply Pastors and Undergraduates which go into effect now.

Perhaps your board has been over-emphatic in the matter of obligations and requirements. It would like to express its spiritual fervor concerning its work of Ministerial Training. Surely the Spirit of God is the Spirit of Truth. Then the messenger of God will earnestly desire to possess the content of that truth, the skills for its proper use, and a sufficient knowledge of the present world in which content and skills must be experienced. It is this inspiration which your Board of Ministerial Training desires to share with you.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. KILBURN, Chairman,

W. R. CURTIS, Registrar.

Quite a bit of the items charged to Bro. Hampton's Expense Account is for parts and repairs on his car in traveling some rough roads in bad weather, all of it itemized to me and verified by his committee. The items to Bros. Stapleton, Dye, Blanchard and Sullivan were for travel and other expenses connected with a Church trial in Chattanooga, details of which you probably know. The writer feels Bro. Hampton has done a magnificent piece of work in the sale of properties, proceeds of which have greatly helped his and other Districts.

MRS. C. F. LUCAS

Mrs. C. F. Lucas, wife of Rev. C. F. Lucas, pastor of the New Salem Charge, was born at Pikeville, Ky., October 6, 1874. Married to Brother Lucas January 17, 1898, and four children were born to this union: Mrs. Carl Panter of Copperhill, Tenn.; Mrs. Lloyd Tillery of Knoxville, Tenn.; John W. and Claudius Lucas. After giving 38 years of splendid and heroic service to the Church by the side of her husband, she slipped away and went home to receive her reward, on May 16, 1936, and was laid to rest at the Woodlawn Cemetery, after a service at the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Knoxville, Tenn., conducted by Rev. J. W. Broyles, the pastor, and Rev. W. H. Ragan, District Superintendent. Mrs. Lucas was an ardent and efficient worker of the Church, and especially of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Her going away is a great loss to the Church, and she will be missed by a large group of women throughout the Holston Conference. Their loss is heaven's gain, where she is receiving the reward of those who faithfully walk and work with the Lord.

THE REV. ALBERT M. ROSE

It was not the privilege of the writer of this obituary to be intimately acquainted with Brother Rose. We were in his home one time and found a real brother and one, though he had been retired for nineteen years and in failing health, extremely interested in every phase of activity of his church.

Brother Rose was born in Sevier County, October 7, 1857. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church rather early in life and after feeling the call to preach the Gospel he knocked at the door of the Holston Annual Conference for admission and was admitted on trial in the conference in 1886. He was ordained elder by Bishop Ninde in 1891.

He was not a man who was selfishly ambitious. His thirty years in the ministry were spent in the rural sections where the pay in dollars and cents was small but where he found the greatest joy, preaching the Great Gospel of Good News, for the most part at least, to those who, like he, were struggling under great economic burdens. He was a kind father. His children have lost a great friend and counselor. His wife, Mrs. Ida Rose and fourteen children survive. The children are: Mr. Fred Rose of Cincinnati, Mr. Moody Rose of Birmingham, Mr. Walter and Mr. Joe Rose of Knoxville, Mr. John Rose of Mooresburg, Tenn.; Mrs. B. F. Ferguson, Mrs. Bess Edmondson, Mrs. J. E. Huddleston, and Misses Clara and Frances Rose of Knoxville, Mrs. C. C. Gore of Birmingham, Mary and Isabell Rose of Afton, Tenn.; and Miss Ruth Rose of Mooresburg, Tenn. One of the greatest testimonies of ones unselfishness and integrity is that he would rear such a family and command their continuous love and respect and leave them as an asset and not a liability to the communities in which they live.

He began his active ministry in the Holston Conference on the Emert Charge in 1886 and retired in 1916, after having served Taze-well. He served the same circuit, which the writer is now serving, in 1910 and after retiring he left his membership with the Russellville Quarterly Conference on the Morristown Circuit. I find that he has a host of friends within the bounds of the charge. He had been in failing health for quite a while, but it was not thought that he would go so quickly. He was not dangerously sick for but a few days. He died April 22nd of this year (1936). His funeral was conducted in the Mooresburg M. E. Church, South, with burial in Magnolia Cemetery, Maryville, Tennessee.

To meet, to know, to love and then to part
Tells life's sad tale to many troubled hearts.

REV. S. G. KETRON

Rev. S. G. Ketron was born at Bloomingdale, Tenn., June 12, 1854. He was educated at Kingsley Seminary and at old Grant University. As a young man he entered the Methodist ministry and joined the Holston Conference in 1881. He died at the Holston Community Hospital at Kingsport, Tenn., April 30, 1936. His funeral service was conducted in the First Methodist Church of Kingsport by Revs. Mark M. Moore, J. M. Melear, W. N. Davenport, Dabney Carson, and Mr. J. Fred Johnson, and his body was laid to rest in the City Cemetery at Kingsport.

Brother Ketron restricted his long ministry of more than fifty years to the Johnson City District. However, he was a powerful figure in the work of the conference as a whole. He served for a period of twelve years as the Superintendent of the District. He was honored by representing the Holston Conference in the General Conference. In this capacity he proved his ability as a statesman of the church. Those close to him say there was not a minister in the conference better known and more loved than "Uncle Sam Ketron" as he was fondly known to laymen and ministers alike.

For forty years Brother Ketron was an active member of the conference, retiring in 1921. But his retirement was more technical than real, for since that time he continued his work of evangelism and most of the time he served as Supply Pastor of some charge. At the time of his death he was Pastor of Lynn Garden and Morrison's Chapel Churches. In the former community the members and friends of Brother Ketron are now in the process of erecting a beautiful church that is to be known as the "Rev. S. G. Ketron Memorial Methodist Church."

CHARLES DILLARD HOUCHINS

Charles Dillard Houchins was born near Russellville, Floyd County, Va., March 5, 1860, and departed this life October 4, 1935, at Neodesha, Kans. aged 75 years, 5 months and 19 days. He grew to young manhood in Virginia and was married there on June 6, 1883, to Miss Margaret Elizabeth Price. To this union were born eleven children, three of whom died in infancy. A fourth, the youngest daughter, Leona, died in Kansas in 1922, at the age of 22.

Brother Houchins began his life of ministry when a young man and served as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for over 35 years. The family moved to Kansas in 1908, where Rev. Houchins continued in the work of the ministry. He was a faithful servant of God and loved his work of ministry to God's people. He retired from the active ministry some years ago and has since resided on his farm near Neodesha, Kans.

For the past three years he had mourned the loss of his beloved wife, who passed on to the great beyond August 2, 1932.

He leaves to mourn his loss, besides a host of friends, five daughters; Mrs. Mary Robinson of Stella, Mo.; Mrs. Allie Yoakum of Speedwell, Tenn.; Mrs. Rose Carroll of Hubbard Springs, Va.; Mrs. Laura Alloway of Drumwright, Okla.; and Mrs. Olive Markley of Lyndon, Kans.; two sons, John Houchins of Hubbard Springs, Va., and James Houchins of Topeka, Kans. One sister, Mrs. Alice Russell of Cedar Bluff, Va.; two brothers, Robert Houchins of Norton, Va., and J. W. Houchins of Topeka, Kans.; also thirty-four grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren.

REV. JAMES ANDERSON MITCHELL

The Rev. James Anderson Mitchell was born near Knoxville, Tenn., April 9, 1865, and passed to his reward at his home in Knoxville, March 19, 1936.

Dr. Mitchell was admitted on trial to the Alabama Conference in 1895, and served in that Conference until 1902. He transferred to the Holston Conference in 1903. During his forty-five years of ministry he was pastor of more than twenty churches. He was also superintendent of the Chattanooga District for a period of eight years. His last charge was the Asbury Church. He retired in 1933 and became a member of the Second Methodist Church where he was much loved by pastor and people. Brother Mitchell was a great friend of the young people and children and did much to help and inspire them to noble living. He is remembered with love and affection in every church which he served; always happy wherever he could do something for the Christ he served so loyally.

He was the friend of young ministers, always anxious to speak a word of encouragement or to help them in any possible way. Many in the Conference have been encouraged to continue their work by a word timely spoken by Brother Mitchell.

His funeral was conducted at Second Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, March 22. Rev. George J. Creswell, pastor of the church, and Rev. Walter A. Smith, pastor of Trinity Church, conducted the service and the body laid to rest in Woodlawn Cemetery.

THE REV. E. O. WOODYARD

By W. F. Pitts

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" We never knew a more princely man than E. O. Woodyard—as a man, friend, neighbor, citizen, churchman, father, husband. We have all mourned since he went home. Our Holston Conference, with long and illustrious history of princely men, never had, and never lost, a nobler member. After an illness of two years he quietly took permanent leave of absence and we shall see him no more here. But his modest and ever-unselfish life left a sweet memory and heavenly benediction to refresh and inspire us to nobler things.

He was born near Elizabeth, Wirt County, W. Va., December 13, 1871, and while resting and communing with his Divine Master in a hospital at Greeneville, Tenn., where he lived last, he was crowned with immortality July 30, 1936. Impressive farewell services were conducted in the Lutheran Church at Mosheim, Tenn., by the Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor at Mosheim, and the Rev. D. B. Cooper, of our Greeneville Church, with pallbearers from ministers who served with him while he was Superintendent of the Johnson City District, and who hold him in sacred and immortal memory and affection. The shrine of mortality which housed his Christ-like spirit was left beneath a wealth of flowers in "God's Acre" at Mosheim, to await the coming of Him whom he loved and served until the last moment.

His record of service is as follows: Admitted on trial, West Virginia Conference, 1904; full membership 1906; ordained Deacon by Bishop Hamilton, 1906; Elder by Bishop Moore, 1908. West Virginia Conference: Albright, 1904-06; Newbury 1906-08; Pennsboro and Cairo, 1908-10. Holston Conference: Saint James, Chattanooga, 1910-12; East Main Avenue, Knoxville, 1912; Roanoke, 1913; Bristol District 1914-16; Greeneville, 1917-18; Kingsport, 1919-25; Johnson City District, 1926-31; Bristol, 1932-33; retired 1934.

He is survived by his wife, who was Mrs. Claudia Clemmer Britton, of Greeneville, before marriage in 1919, and by two daughters by his former wife, who was Miss Lena L. Achors, of Williamsport, W. Va.; also by two brothers and sisters.

It is well known throughout Holston Conference that Brother Woodyard was far more than a good pastor and able preacher. Like Julius Caesar, he was a many-sided genius—brick mason, carpenter, plasterer, plumber, decorator, electrician, musician, tailor. We never knew a man who could do as many things well as he.

The writer preached a few Sundays ago in the beautiful M. E. Church at Kingsport—a real Temple of Worship, a dream of utility and beauty brought to perfection by his trained mind and skilled hands. As we stood in that Cathedral-like Church we thought of Sir Christopher Wren, the greatest of all English Architects, on whose memorial tablet is carved: "If thou seek his monument, look about thee."

When appointed Pastor at Kingsport, the membership was small and poor, he took upon himself the task of building, and like the sainted Bishop McIntyre, who with his own hands laid the bricks for a Church where he was once Pastor, Brother Woodyard placed with his own hands 186,000 brick, and in such unique design as to attract the eyes and commendation of expert masons and curiosity seekers. There stand those walls testifying through the years to his genius. When he had finished the brick work, then with saw, hammer, square, he completed the wood-work with the exception of a few hours' labor by other mechanics. It was he who constructed the tall cupola which towers toward the stars of God. That done, to the surprise and admiration of Kingsport people, he proceeded to plaster, paint and decorate the interior walls and trimmings. Still not satisfied with that outlay of genius and artistic workmanship, he installed the electric light system. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension Society, at Philadelphia, which furnished most of the money, allowed him one dollar an hour for his supervision and work, and he put every penny of it into the enterprise. He saved the Church by his labor $10,000, and would never accept a cent. It is no wonder that Kingsport people and Holston Conference hold, and will continue to hold, his memory in sacred veneration. Space will not permit a detailed description of the building with its conveniently arranged compartments, but as every one knows who has seen and gone through it, it is a beauty and the pride of Kingsport and community. While working on the building he preached twice on Sundays and sustained a high average as a pulpiteer, and did pastoral work evenings and nights.

One of his favorite sayings was: "Let it be remembered that a good life counts more than any dying testimony," and such was his heritage. And when the Angel we call DEATH, but which truly is God's Messenger of Deliverance, came to kiss him to sleep, he closed his eyes and passed into peaceful and restful slumber "Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

WILLIAM F. PITTS, his friend,
Elizabethton, Tenn.

OUR SAINTED DEAD

"These all died in the faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."
